REPORT ON THE HONOLULU RECORD

The Committee on Un-American Activities, after an investigation and analysis of the Honolulu Record, owned and published by the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., hereby submits this report concerning the publication to the House of Representatives.

OWNERSHIP

The Articles of Association of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. (exhibit No. 1),¹ filed with the office of the treasurer, Territory of Hawaii, on August 27, 1948, reflect that the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., was officially incorporated on that date, with the first officers and directors of the organization as follows:

President—Koji Ariyoshi
Vice president—Lewis K. Yogi
Secretary—Cyril Bristow
Treasurer—Adrian Palomino
Director—Nobuyuki Matsuzaki

The amount of $50,000, to be divided into 10,000 shares of common stock at a par value of $5 per share, was set forth as the authorized capital of said corporation.

The affidavit of officers (exhibit No. 2),² filed with the treasurer's office, Territory of Hawaii, on August 26, 1948, discloses that 7,881 of the 10,000 shares of stock were subscribed to. This same exhibit reflects that only 1,007 shares of the subscribed common stock were ever paid for (a total sum of $5,035). The unpaid subscribed stock, amounting to 6,874 shares, is in the name of Koji Ariyoshi. Thus, this exhibit discloses that the Honolulu Record Publishing Co. began its operations with total cash assets of $5,035.

On the annual corporation exhibit (exhibit No. 3),³ filed by the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., for the period August 26, 1948, through August 31, 1949, it is significant to note that at the end of the first year of operation, it could show an increase of 353 paid-up shares of stock (value, $1,765). Paid-up stock in the corporation then amounted to $6,800.

The annual corporation exhibit also reflects a net operating loss for the first year of $2,351.91. This exhibit further discloses that the total net worth of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., as of August 31, 1949, was $4,548.09.

Out of a total of 8,133 subscribed shares of stock, valued at $40,665, the exhibit reveals that 7,500 shares, worth $37,500, were subscribed to by Koji Ariyoshi, editor of the Honolulu Record and president of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. However, this exhibit reflects that the total amount actually invested by Ariyoshi is $3,635, or

³ See appendix, pp. 24-29.

727 shares purchased and paid for by him. He is indebted to the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., in the amount of $33,865, covering 6,773 shares of common stock as subscribed to by him.

Ariyoshi's present position as editor of the Honolulu Record fits in well with his background. He is probably one of the best qualified persons in Hawaii to propagandize the Communist Party line through the medium of the press.

Koji Ariyoshi was born on January 30, 1914, at Koma, T. H. He attended the University of Hawaii from 1937 to 1940, and the University of Georgia during the 1940-41 term, where he received his bachelor's degree in journalism. He enlisted in the United States Army at Manzanar Relocation Center on November 30, 1942. In January 1944 he departed for the China-Burma-India theater where he was assigned to psychological warfare work. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in June of 1945 and remained in the same type of work until January 5, 1946, when his request to be discharged in China was granted. Subsequent to his discharge, he became employed with the OWI as a field representative.

Ariyoshi's reaction concerning his experiences in Communist China are somewhat reflected in an article appearing under his name in the February 1947 issue of Spotlight on the Far East, published by the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy, which has been cited as Communist by Attorney General Tom C. Clark. In this issue he wrote a guest column in support of the Chinese Communists. The March and June 1949 issues of Far East Spotlight, successor to Spotlight on the Far East, lists Ariyoshi as a consultant to the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy. This magazine has consistently supported the Chinese Communists.

The Hawaii Star of April 23, 1948, reflects that a progress report on the New York Chapter of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee was made by Koji Ariyoshi, one of the founders of this chapter, at an HCLC meeting in Honolulu on April 20, 1948. The HCLC was cited as being Communist by the Attorney General of the United States on April 28, 1949. The HCLC was also cited as—a subversive organization initiated and operated by Communists for the sole purpose of expanding the influence of the small Communist minority in the Territory of Hawaii—by the Committee on Un-American Activities in a report to the House of Representatives on June 23, 1950 (made H. Rept. 2986, August 24, 1950).

In view of the foregoing, it is not surprising to find that Ariyoshi uses the Honolulu Record to promote the Chinese Communists and the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee.

Listed in the annual corporation exhibit (exhibit No. 3)⁴ as a member of the board of directors of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., and holder of seven shares of stock is Adele Kensinger, residing at 1658 Piikoi Street, Honolulu. During the hearings of the subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in Honolulu during April 1950, four individuals identified Adele Kensinger as a member of the Communist Party.

Former Communist Richard Kageyama testified on April 10, 1950, that Adele Kensinger was a member of the Makiki branch of the ⁴ See appendix, pp. 24-29.

Communist Party. Testimony of Harry Kuhia, Jr., and Donald Uesugi, former Communists, on April 12, 1950, also identified Adele Kensinger as attending meetings of the Communist Party. On April 13, 1950, Masao Mori testified that he observed Adele Kensinger at a party meeting which he attended. Masao Mori severed connections with the Communist Party after receiving a Communist Party card.

Adele Kensinger appeared as a witness under subpoena before the subcommittee on April 17, 1950, at which time she refused to either deny or affirm testimony concerning her Communist affiliations on grounds of self-incrimination. Investigations by the committee reflect that Mrs. Kensinger was a member of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee and at one time was a member of the organization committee of the HCLC when it was headed by Marshall McEuen.

According to Soviet Russia Today for July 1947 (p. 3), Mrs. Kensinger referred to this pro-Soviet publication as her "favorite magazine" and described how she secured 100 subscriptions to it.

She also has contributed byline articles to the Honolulu Record. One of interest appears on page 7 of the issue of June 2, 1949, under the title, "Pressure for Peace Breaks Through Gags of Reaction." In this article Mrs. Kensinger criticized in one instance the action of the United States Government in its first refusal to issue to Dr. Hewlett Johnson a visa to enter the United States. She said in the article that Dr. Johnson, known as the Red Dean of Canterbury, desired to enter the country "to speak for peace." She further stated, "The indignation of the American people altered that decision * * *"

Mrs. Kensinger's reason for the refusal of the first visa to Dr. Johnson is completely erroneous; however, her views paralleled those expressed in the Communist press. According to Government records, Dr. Johnson was refused a visa because he was being sponsored in the United States by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, a subversive and Communist-dominated organization cited by both the Attorney General of the United States and the Committee on Un-American Activities. When the sponsorship of Dr. Johnson was withdrawn by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, a visa was issued and Dr. Johnson was allowed to enter the United States and advance his ideologies in support of communism.

In the afore-mentioned article Mrs. Kensinger also supports Frederic Joliot-Curie, director of France's atomic energy project. However, she fails to mention that Curie is a member of the Communist Party. He was recently removed from his position as director of the atomic energy project in France.

Howard Fast is also quoted in this article by Mrs. Kensinger as writing a factual review of the Peace Conference in Paris. Mr. Fast is a pro-Communist writer who was cited for contempt of Congress in 1946 for refusing to produce records of the Communist-dominated front organization known as the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. He was convicted in Federal courts on July 16, 1947, and has recently been jailed following a Supreme Court decision upholding his conviction.

It also might be noted in regard to the afore-mentioned Peace Conference that Paul Robeson there made the infamous remark that the American Negro would never support the United States in the event of war against Russia. This statement of Mr. Robeson's has since been repudiated by responsible Negro leaders throughout the United States.

Cyril Bristow, of 2357-C Palolo Avenue, Honolulu, is listed as secretary-treasurer (exhibit No. 3) of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. The affidavit of officers (exhibit No. 2), dated August 26, 1948, lists Cyril Bristow as owning six shares in the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. The annual corporation exhibit (exhibit No. 3), filed with the treasurer's office, Territory of Hawaii, on December 8, 1949, discloses Bristow owns 18 shares of stock, a purchase increase of 12 shares since his original purchase as reflected by exhibit No. 2.

A souvenir journal of the Labor Canteen, located at 830 Richards Street, Honolulu, on the occasion of its formal opening on August 19, 1945, lists Cyril Bristow as chairman of its publicity committee, with his former wife, Elizabeth Bristow, an identified member of the Communist Party, as chairman of its temporary committees.

Among those identified as Communists by former members of the Communist Party during the hearings of the Committee on Un-American Activities in Honolulu were the following 1945 officers of the Labor Canteen: Jack Hall, chairman; Doris Ozaki, secretary; Elizabeth Bristow, chairman of the progress committee; Alice Hyun, finance committee; Ah Quon McElrath, finance committee; Ralph Vossbrink, finance committee; and Doris Ozaki, program book.

The Truth About Communism in Hawaii, a pamphlet written by Ichiro Izuka, was entered into the official record of the Committee on Un-American Activities during its hearings in Honolulu on April 11, 1950. Mr. Izuka, on page 29 of this exhibit, refers to the Labor Canteen in the following manner:

Just as the Communist Party uses workers and their labor organizations to carry out the program of the Communist Party, so do they use middle class, "parlor pinks" and so-called liberals and intellectuals. This policy is exemplified by the Labor Canteen set up during the war, which in turn gave birth to the Hawaii Association for Civic Unity. Fellow Traveler innocents, like Dr. Rademaker, had insisted that it was not the Communist Party but the Labor Canteen that gave leadership in HACU. Well, I can only tell you what I know. While the Waikiki Group was still in existence, Ralph Vossbrink made an official, though verbal, report to that group. He said that the Executive Board of the Communist Party had assigned the Kaimuki Group the job of infiltrating into, and giving leadership to, the Labor Canteen and HACU. This assignment was made to the Kaimuki Group because they had no direct connections with labor unions, and were supposed to be intellectuals.

On January 22, 1946, the Honorable George A. Dondero made the following statement in regard to the Labor Canteen:

The Labor Canteen in Honolulu, which has been a hotbed of Communist propaganda among the soldiers stationed in the vicinity, is today the headquarters of the so-called Oahu Servicemen's Committee for Speedier Demobilization. The head of this canteen is Ewart G. Guinier, a well-known New York Communist, fired by the New York Civil Service Commission in June 1942.

Mr. Bristow is presently married to Esther Bristow, treasurer of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee, a Communist-dominated and controlled organization which has been cited as a Communist front by the Attorney General of the United States and the Committee on Un-American Activities. Mr. Bristow is also a member of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee.

The annual corporation exhibit of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. (exhibit No. 3), reflects that Adrian Palomino, 3202 East

Manoa Road, Honolulu, is vice president of the publishing company. The same exhibit discloses that Adrian Palomino is the owner of 36 shares of stock in the organization.

With further reference to Adrian Palomino, the following affidavit (exhibit No. 4) was secured from Mr. Ichiro Izuka on June 2, 1950, setting forth his knowledge regarding Mr. Palomino's Communist activities:

AFFIDAVIT OF ICHIRO IZUKA

TERRITORY OF HAWAII,

City and County of Honolulu, ss:

Ichiro Izuka, being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and says:

That he is a resident of the county of Kauai, Territory of Hawaii, with mailing address Post Office Box 27, Hanapepe, Kauai, T. H., and is the person of the name Ichiro Izuka who testified before the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives, sitting in Honolulu, T. H., on April 10, 1950, and on later occasions;

That from 1938 until about October 20, 1946, affiant was a member in good standing of the Communist Party in the Territory of Hawaii; that from the time of the postwar reactivation of the Communist Party in the Territory of Hawaii in November 1945, until affiant left the Communist Party about October 20, 1946, affiant was a member of and served as treasurer of the so-called Miscellaneous Group of the Communist Party in Honolulu; that Ralph Vossbrink was also a member of that group and also held the office of literature director thereof;

That at a date which affiant believes to have been in the first half of 1946, affiant attended a meeting of said Miscellaneous Group at the home of Elizabeth Bristow in the Waikiki section of Honolulu, and affiant recalls that among other Communist Party members of the group present at the same meeting were Ralph Vossbrink, Jack W. Hall, Robert McElrath, Koichi Imori, Ralph Tokunaga, Ernest Arena, and Elizabeth Bristow; that at said meeting among other matters considered was an oral report made by Ralph Vossbrink, which report affiant recalls to have been substantially as follows:

That Vossbrink knew a man by the name of Adrian Palomino and knew the latter to be a member of the Communist Party; that Palomino was or had been a member of the United States armed forces, and would therefore be entitled to the loan guarantee privileges of the so-called GI bill of rights should he desire to go into business for himself; that Palomino had told Vossbrink that he (Palomino) was willing to use his GI loan guarantee privilege to finance the establishment in Honolulu of a "progressive book shop"; and, that Palomino planned that such book shop would sell Marxist and other left-wing literature;

The said report by Vossbrink was rendered as an official report to a meeting of the Miscellaneous Group of the Communist Party and in the course of Vossbrink's duties as literature director of the group; that the report was then put up for discussion at the meeting; that the sentiment of all those present at the meeting was that Palomino's proposed plan was definitely in the best interests of the Communist Party and that he should be encouraged to go through with the plan;

That affiant did not then know Palomino personally and has never met him, and knows of no other information that would connect Palomino with Communist Party activities or membership;

And further affiant sayeth not, except that this affidavit is given at the request of the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives.

ICHIRO IZUKA.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2d day of June 1950.

LIONEL P. CAMARA,

Notary Public, First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii.

My commission expires September 22, 1950.

Ray Jerome Baker, 911 Kalakana, Honolulu, owns a block of 40 shares of stock in the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd. (exhibit No. 3), valued at $200. In reviewing Mr. Baker's background, his financial support of this publication is easily understandable.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation identified Ray J. Baker as a member of the Communist Party in 1941, when a schematic diagram was drawn up by the Honolulu Field Division of the FBI, entitled "Communist Activities in the Territory of Hawaii." Said diagram was entered as item 32 in the proceeding of the Roberts Report, part 25, of the hearings before the Joint Committee on the Investigation of the Pearl Harbor Attack. It is to be noted in this report that Mr. Baker is designated for custodial detention.

Documentation of Mr. Baker's support of the Communist press will be found in the Daily People's World, the Communist Party's official newspaper on the Pacific coast, on August 24, 1943 (exhibit No. 5),⁵ wherein he is quoted as follows:

Congratulations and good wishes for your continued success in getting out an A-1 working class paper. In these times, the PW is needed more than ever.

Again, in the issue of Wednesday, February 4, 1948, he states that he is a subscriber to the Communist Daily People's World (exhibit No. 6).⁶

Mr. Baker, in the Sunday Honolulu Advertiser of December 4, 1949, under the heading "Letters from the people," criticizes the efforts of the Territorial residents in combatting communism. He writes in defense of "two excellent and needed teachers who lost their jobs * * *." The letter in its entirety can be reviewed in the aforementioned newspaper. The Honolulu Record of February 24, 1949, and of September 22, 1949, printed byline articles written by Ray Jerome Baker.

Any remaining doubt of Mr. Baker's Communist convictions should be dispelled by a letter which he wrote under date of February 1, 1947, and which is reproduced as exhibit No. 7⁷ in this report. In this letter, it will be noted, Mr. Baker virtually identifies himself as a Communist.

Wo Leong Ho (Wallace Ho), 510 Bush Street, San Francisco, Calif., according to the annual corporation exhibit of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., (exhibit No. 3), is the owner of 100 shares of stock in the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., valued at $500.

Mr. Ho was identified as a member of the Communist Party during the hearings conducted by the subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in Honolulu from April 10 to April 19, 1950. Documentation of Mr. Ho's Communist membership will be found in the testimony of Mr. Ichiro Izuka during the hearings of the committee on April 10, wherein a letter was introduced into the record as follows:

HONOLULU, T. H., November 18, 1946.

DEAR COMRADE: You are hereby notified that charges have been placed against you by the Territorial executive board of the Communist Party of the United States of America, for your direct violation of our article 4, section 2, and article 9, section 1, of our constitution.

For the immediate disposal of your case, the trial committee will meet on Sunday, November 24, 1946, at 2 p. m., at 62 Laimi Road, Honolulu, T. H. In accordance with our constitution you have the fullest rights to appear before this committee to defend yourself from any injustice.

Yours truly,

WALLACE HO,
Chairman of the Trial Board.

⁵ See appendix, p. 30.

⁶ See appendix, p. 31.

⁷ See appendix, p. 32.

The afore-mentioned letter was introduced as "Izuka Exhibit 17" and appears on page 1419, Hearings Regarding Communist Activities in the Territory of Hawaii—Part 1.

According to the annual corporation exhibit of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., Denichi Kimoto, 2126 Makamani Drive, Honolulu, is in receipt of 106 shares of stock, valued at $530. Mr. Kimoto was identified before the subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities during the hearings in Hawaii as a member of the Communist Party. According to testimony, he attended a Communist Party school in California during the middle thirties and was sent to Hawaii in 1938 as organizer for the Communist Party.

The subcommittee produced evidence of Mr. Kimoto's membership in the Communist Party in 1937 and 1938, and established that he used the party name of Roy Lane during that period. Mr. Kimoto, in his appearance before the subcommittee on April 18, 1950, refused to answer all questions regarding his Communist Party membership on grounds of self-incrimination.

The Honolulu Record, since its inception, has given favorable publicity to the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee, and has printed byline articles by the officers of the HCLC. The mutual cooperation between the HCLC and the Honolulu Record is based on more than mutual Communist sympathies. The annual corporation exhibit of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., discloses that the HCLC owns 10 shares of stock, valued at $50, in the publishing company. This transaction was thoroughly documented by exhibits introduced into the record of the subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities during the hearings in Honolulu, and the original canceled check disclosing payment for the stock was entered as an exhibit.⁸

Additional individuals who own stock in the Honolulu Record and who were identified as members of the Communist Party before the Committee on Un-American Activities during the recent hearings in Honolulu are: John Elias, Jr., 165 Sixteenth Street, CHA-3, Honolulu, one share; Frank Maehara, 815-C Kanou Street, Honolulu, four shares; Doris Ozaki, 933 Seventeenth Street, Honolulu, four shares; Eileen Fujimoto, 1526 Kaihee Street, Honolulu, one share.

The 1949 annual corporation exhibit of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., lists Gottfried Seitz, 2357-C Palolo Avenue, Honolulu, as a member of the board of directors and holder of 5 shares of stock of the company. Mr. Seitz was also chairman of the legal action committee of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee in 1949.

Mr. Seitz, however, has informed the Committee on Un-American Activities that he severed his relations with the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee in May 1949, and also discontinued his connections with the Honolulu Record as an officer and stockholder as of September 1950.

A breakdown of the ownership of the Honolulu Record Publishing Co., Ltd., discloses that out of a total of 8,133 subscribed shares of capital common stock, 7,830 shares are subscribed to by members of the Communist Party or a front of the Communist Party.

From the foregoing, it is apparent that the Honolulu Record is securely within the orbit of control by the Communist Party.

⁸ See Hearings Regarding Communist Activities in the Territory of Hawaii—Part 2, p. 1657.

UTILIZATION OF COMMUNIST PRESS SERVICES

This publication utilizes the articles of such well-known Communist press services as the Federated Press and the Allied Labor News. The cartoons appearing in the Honolulu Record are by artists serving the Communist press and are distributed by the Federated Press.

The Special Committee on Un-American Activities on March 29, 1944, cited the Federated Press—as a Communist-controlled organization financed by the American Fund for Public Service and the Robert Marshall Foundation, both principal sources of funds for Communist enterprises.

Numerous references to Federated Press occur in testimony before the Special Committee on Un-American Activities. The following reference is quoted from the public testimony of Walter S. Steele before the committee on July 21, 1947:

The Allied Labor News Service is an international Communist service. It has correspondents in foreign countries, and it serves Communist publications. It augments, rather than competes with, the Federated Press, which deals with local and national events.

* * * Reds and Red frontiers control many of the publications circulated in labor circles. Their writers have taken over the editorial columns, and articles are contributed in many instances by outright Communists. Most of these publications are served by the Federated Press or the Allied Labor News Service, both of which have long been infiltrated if not actually controlled by the Communists.

The Washington Daily News, November 10, 1947, contained an article by Fred W. Perkins, which quoted the AFL's Weekly News Service as follows:

"The International Labor Press Association at its convention in San Francisco voted not to use the Federated Press news service on the grounds that it is edited along the lines of the Communist Party policy.

"The AFL has long held the same view with regard to the Federated Press. We, therefore, urge all the loyal affiliated labor press not to subscribe to the Federated Press or use its services."

The Honolulu Record has carried Federated Press articles written by:

Carl Haessler, who in 1935 was an instructor at the Communist Workers School in Chicago and a contributor to the Daily Worker, official Communist Party organ. He traveled to Europe in October 1927, where he attended the tenth anniversary of the Russian Revolution in Moscow.

Johannes Steel, who since 1937 has been a consistent contributor to newspapers and periodicals serving the Communist cause. He has contributed to Fight, official organ of the cited Communist front, American League Against War and Fascism, later known as the American League for Peace and Democracy; to Soviet Russia Today, a magazine published by the Friends of Soviet Russia, a cited Communist front; to Far East Spotlight, the monthly publication of the cited Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy; to Slavic American, a publication of the American Slav Congress, also a cited Communist front; and to the Daily Worker and Daily People's World, both official organs of the Communist Party.

Harold J. Salemsen, who in 1947 was charged as a holder of a Communist Party membership book by the Hollywood Reporter, which also identified Salemsen as Hollywood correspondent for the French Communist newspaper, Ce Soir. He was also the signer of a call to the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers, a cited Communist front in New York City, on June 6-8, 1941. Salemsen in 1946 was listed as an instructor at the Peoples Educational Center which the Attorney General of the United States cited—as a subversive and Communist organization incorporated under the name Los Angeles Educational Association, Inc.

Fred Zeserson, who according to the records of this committee was in 1948 a member of the board of directors of the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy, which has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States as a Communist organization. In 1949 he was listed as a member of its editorial committee. He has contributed articles to the Far East Spotlight, official publication of the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy.

Stetson Kennedy, a sponsor of the National Non-Partisan Committee to Defend the Rights of the 12 Communist Leaders. He has been a guest speaker before the Communist-cited Civil Rights Congress, and has signed an open letter to the Congress of the United States under the sponsorship of the Civil Rights Congress.

Ed Hughes, a sports writer for the Federated Press and the Daily People's World, Communist paper on the Pacific coast.

Richard Sasuly, Washington correspondent, Federated Press, who has voiced the Communist Party line in his articles, which are distributed to the Communist press throughout the United States. His record in relation to subversive activities can be found in the Congressional Record of February 28, 1949, page A1155.

The majority of cartoons printed in the Honolulu Record are those drawn by Ben Yomen, Fred Wright, and A. Redfield. These artists supply cartoons to the Communist press on the mainland. For example, a cartoon which appeared in the Honolulu Record of February 23, 1950 (exhibit No. 8),⁹ was reproduced in the magazine section of the Worker, official organ of the Communist Party, February 26, 1950 (exhibit No. 9).¹⁰ A cartoon by A. Redfield appeared in the November 11, 1948, issue of the Honolulu Record (exhibit No. 10).¹¹ A cartoon by the same individual appears in the Daily People's World of March 13, 1948 (exhibit No. 11).¹²

Ben Yomen's cartoons set a pattern of ridiculing the Congress of the United States and appear regularly in the Honolulu Record. For an example, see Honolulu Record, September 9, 1948 (exhibit No. 12).¹³ A similar cartoon by Yomen was printed in the Daily Worker of April 25, 1947 (exhibit No. 13).¹⁴

LOCAL WRITERS FOR THE RECORD

Many of the persons in the Territory of Hawaii who write articles for the Honolulu Record have significant records of activity in the Communist Party or its front organizations.

Among those whose by-lines appear over stories in the Honolulu Record are:

Wilfred Oka, whose sports column appears every week in the subversive publication. Mr. Oka was identified as a Communist Party member by two former Communists in testimony before a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in April 1950. Three other former holders of Communist Party membership cards identified Mr. Oka as having attended Communist Party meetings. Mr. Oka has also been affiliated with the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee. When subpoenaed to appear before the subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities, Mr. Oka refused to affirm or deny his Communist associations on the ground of self-incrimination.

Stephen Murin, who is the present chairman of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee. Mr. Murin was identified as an active Communist Party member by Matthew Cvetic, an FBI undercover agent within the Communist Party, in testimony before the Committee on Un-American Activities on February 23, 1950. The files of the committee also show that Mr. Murin was engaged in Communist activities in Pennsylvania, the State of which he is a native. In an appearance before a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities, Mr. Murin refused to answer questions relating to Communist Party membership on the ground of self-incrimination.

John Reinecke, identified as treasurer of the central committee of the Communist Party in Hawaii and as a member of the party's Territorial executive board. Four former Communists outlined Mr. Reinecke's leading role in Communist activities, in hearings held by a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in Honolulu in April 1950. When called before the subcommittee, Mr. Reinecke refused to answer any questions related to his Communist activity on the ground of self-incrimination. Prior to the subcommittee hearings, Mr. Reinecke had been dismissed from a teaching position in the Territory on the basis of his subversive affiliations.

Robert Greene, who not only wrote for the Honolulu Record but also served as city editor of the publication in 1948. Mr. Greene, according to the files of the Committee on Un-American Activities, attended several Communist indoctrination courses in Hawaii and, at one time, conducted a class of his own in basic Marxism. Former Communist Donald Uesugi has named Mr. Greene as being present at a Communist Party meeting; Mr. Uesugi testified before a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in April 1950. Mr. Greene has served as chairman of the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee, as radio script writer for the Communist-controlled International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, and as vice president of a Communist effort known as the Unemployed Workers Organization. Mr. Greene transferred his residence from Hawaii to the mainland in February 1950.

Frank Marshall Davis, author of a regular weekly column in the Honolulu Record entitled "Frankly Speaking." Mr. Davis' column defends Communists and attacks capitalism with the same vigor as columns appearing regularly in the Daily Worker and other frankly Communist publications. Typical of Mr. Davis' remarks are the following:

Democracy today lies weak and slowly dying from the poison administered by the divident doctors in Washington and Wall Street who have fooled a trusting public into believing that they are the specialists who would save us from the dread diseases of socialism and communism * * * They hope to hand us fascism disguised as the healed democracy (Honolulu Record, July 28, 1949, p. 8).

Mr. Davis constantly defended the 11 top United States Communist officials recently convicted in New York on charges of conspiracy to advocate the overthrow of the Government by force and violence. One of Mr. Davis' comments on the case was as follows:

I feel strong sympathy for the Communist minority who are being oppressed for their political beliefs (Honolulu Record, October 20, 1949, p. 6).

When Mr. Davis' column first appeared in the Record in May 1949, the Record boasted that the author was a member of the national executive board of the Civil Rights Congress. The organization is cited as Communist by Attorney General Tom Clark as well as by the Committee on Un-American Activities. Mr. Davis has signed a number of statements in behalf of Communists under the sponsorship of the Civil Rights Congress; one of these defended was Gerhart Eisler, notorious Communist international agent who escaped jailing for passport fraud by fleeing to the Soviet sector of Germany.

Other front organizations of the Communist Party with which Mr. Davis has associated include: American Youth for Democracy, Abraham Lincoln School, National Federation for Constitutional Liberties, League of American Writers, the National Negro Congress, and the Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee.

Edward Rohrbough who has also contributed articles to such outright Communist publications on the mainland as the Daily People's World and the New Masses. The Daily People's World is cited as "the official organ of the Communist Party on the west coast" by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities; the committee cited New Masses as the "nationally circulated weekly journal of the Communist Party." Former Attorney General Francis Biddle also cited New Masses as a Communist periodical.

Mr. Rohrbough was a speaker at the California Labor School, cited as subversive and Communist by Attorney General Tom Clark. Mr. Rohrbough in 1948 and 1949 was listed as a consultant to the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy, cited as Communist by Attorney General Tom Clark.

During the war Mr. Rohrbough served in China as a press correspondent and employee of the Office of War Information. His writings in the New Masses and the Daily People's World reveal that he is in complete sympathy with the Chinese Communists who, in Rohrbough's eyes, are "liberating" China and bringing "democracy" to that land.

Mr. Rohrbough's wife, Jeanette Nakama Rohrbough, has been identified as an active Communist Party member by five former Communists who testified before a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities in April 1950.

Eleanor Agnew, who served as vice chairman of the subversive Hawaii Civil Liberties Committee and as chairman of its educational committee in 1949. Mrs. Agnew has recently taken up residence on the mainland.

Adele Kensinger and Ray Jerome Baker, whose Communist associations are detailed in the previous section of this report entitled "Ownership."

COMMUNIST PARTY LINE CONTENT

An analysis of the complete contents of the Honolulu Record reveals the strictest adherence to the Communist Party line.

Articles referring to the Soviet Union or the Communist Party of the United States are consistently slanted to favor the Soviet Union and its American puppets. Friendly write-ups are also given to Communist movements in other countries, such as China, Greece, France, and the Philippines. Individual United States Communist leaders on numerous occasions receive favorable attention in the Honolulu Record, which reserves its most generous publicity, however, for the activities of Hawaii Communists. Communist-front organization and Communist-controlled unions, both in Hawaii and on the mainland, are well publicized in the Record.

The Record is equally consistent in presenting in an unfavorable light any actions which conflict with the interests of Communists. Thus, the Honolulu Record represents only criticism of American defense spending, the Marshall plan and European-recovery program, aid to Greece and [Nationalist] China, and other aspects of the United States foreign policy designed to help curb the spread of communism. The Record furthermore makes it clear to its readers that it has only contempt for the capitalist system.

CONCLUSION

The Committee on Un-American Activities, after analysis and investigation of the Honolulu Record since its first issue of August 5, 1948, draws the inevitable conclusion that the Honolulu Record is a front for the Communist Party, despite the fact that the paper does not make this admission.

It should be noted in this connection that during the past decade all Communist publications have gone to great lengths to give the impression of having no direct connections with the Communist Party. Even official publications of the Communist Party, USA, have terminated such designation since 1936 and appear instead as organs of certain publishing companies formed for that special purpose. The Honolulu Record conforms to this pattern completely.

The Committee on Un-American Activities would like to point out that the success of such a newspaper, dedicated to disseminating Communist propaganda, depends upon support from deluded liberals. The Communists recognize that most Americans would not knowingly support the Communist Party, and therefore have devised various front organizations and publications so as to ensnare the unwary liberal. The latter serves to add prestige to the Communist front and to attract other non-Communist support.

William K. Bassett, administrative assistant to the mayor of Honolulu, falls into the category of those liberals who have aided and abetted the Communists' front publication, the Honolulu Record. By serving as a columnist for the Record, he has imparted an aura of respectability which the subversive publication does not deserve. This definitely was not in the best interests of the people of Hawaii or the Government of which he is an official.

the Burma campaign supported by millions of American troops. It will involve the most difficult amphibious operations of the war, necessitating hundreds of rivers which have been used to supply Burma.

The defeat of Japanese forces in the Aleutians is the last trouble spot left in the Japanese empire, experts believe. Kiska is no longer a threat to American air and sea operations, will soon be in the hands of the Kuriles and against some of the islands of Japan proper.

It is regarded certain that the Japanese attack on Paramushiro will be repulsed.

The capture of a powerful force in the Aleutians, the northern Japanese, it is hoped, will force the Japanese home fleet into the attack on the successful submarine campaign also was forestalled by the recon-

FROM HAWAII AND KANSAS COMES PRAISE

Readers from Kansas, Idaho, Texas, Oregon and Hawaii registered support for The People's World today with contributions to the Victory Fund Drive.

R. J. Baker, a photographer on Kalakaua avenue in Honolulu, writes:

"Congratulations and good wishes for your continued success in getting out an A1 working class paper. In these times the PW is needed more than ever."

From an army camp in Virginia, Kansas, a private sends $2.00 and comments:

"As a trade unionist now in the U. S. Army, I realize that it is absolutely essential that your paper carry on the fight on the home front. May I take this opportunity to thank you for keeping me informed on what is happening on the labor front."

miles across at latest accounts Sunday, which would mean the Nazi garrison would actually have to fight its way out.

A few hours after the Nazi explanation, came an order of the day from Premier Marshal Stalin, in Moscow, declaring the Red Army had taken Kharkov by assault.

The Moscow population had its attention attracted to the news by a thundering 20 salvos from 225 guns of the capital's defenses.

ORDER OF THE DAY

The first quotation to' arrive overseas from the order was:

"Today, August 23, troops of the Steppe front with the active cooperation of the flank of troops of the Voronezh and Southwest fronts have broken the resistance of the enemy and taken by storm the town of Kharkov.

"Thus the second capital of the Ukraine, our own Kharkov, has been freed of the yoke of the German Fascist scoundrels.

"In the offensive battles for the capture of the town of Kharkov, our troops have shown a high standard of battle training, valor and maneuverability."

Kharkov's capture is also important because it means the final smashing of the German "hedgehog" line: Rzhev, Orel, Kursk. (Continued on page 2, column 7)

'Godfather' Dulles

Editor, Daily People's World:

It is evident that John Foster Dulles was godfather to Miss "Marshall Plan," since he is always with the nurse, ready to give instructions, and to see to it that they are properly carried out, with money flowing freely and without stint (at the government's expense, of course).

J. W., Oakland.

Lauding Lapin

Editor, Daily People's World:

I try never to miss Adam Lapin's column in The People's World which reaches me by air mail one to two days old. It is such a refreshing experience after reading our local reactionary sheets or the snooty, slanted columns of the weekly news magazines.

The unsigned editorials are good stuff, too. Congratulations.

REPORT ON THE HONOLULU RECORD

EXHIBIT 7

R. J. BAKER, PHOTOGRAPHER,
1911 Kalaniana'one Avenue,
Honolulu, 42 Hawaii.

February 1st, 1947

This acknowledges receipt of your note of January 24th, with attached clipping from John Burrough's Diary.

I feel sure that you do not object to our postoffice and mail carrying facilities which carry ordinary letters to the ends of our land for 3¢ and get them there in a hurry by air mail for 5¢ and I doubt that you would disagree if I said that "free enterprise" would be likely to charge from 25¢ to 50¢ for the same service.

Our public school system is at times severely criticized, but most people agree that everything considered it does a wonderful job. The surprise is, not that it does not do better, but that it does as well as it does. I am sure that you know your history well enough to know that in the times of George Washington parents had to educate their own children any way they could, using private tutors, private schools and private colleges. The public school system was not yet established. The necessity for an enlightened citizenry called for better and more accessible educational facilities, hence the rise of the public school.

Communists contend that both of these institutions are, in essence, capitalist institutions. They are run without profit and for the benefit of all citizens of our broad land. No one would want to have them abolished or their services lessened. We ask them, why not extend this principle to the furnishing of other human needs. Within five hundred feet of my home are three grocery stores. Each has its building, its stock, its refrigerator and its fresh vegetables. There are three barber shops within the same distance. Three milkmen deliver milk in my block.

Even an unintelligent person can see the waste and duplication of effort and facilities involved. These illustrations could be multiplied scores of times in every community. We believe that instead of allowing every small business person to charge all the traffic will bear for very necessary services, that each community should have its shopping center where everything needed may be purchased at cost. Such a center could be planned by the best architects; ample parking space could be provided, and the best of everything available that people eat, wear and use could be provided at cost.

Of course those who profit by "free enterprise" and who own or advertise in the newspapers immediately tell us that such a plan would immediately fail; that it would reduce everybody to a common level; that it would be immoral, indecent, etc., etc. The old anti-communist arguments, you know.

We also contend that all the great industries should be run for the benefit of all people instead of the few owners; that surveys should be made of our resources and of the national needs and that the tragic waste that results from competitive industry should be eliminated.

I shall not go further, since you may not be interested anyway, than to say that most people are now talking about the "next depression." Depressions are an essential part of "free enterprise", but are completely unnecessary under a planned economy such as I have suggested.

As for John Burroughs, he was a brilliant writer, an excellent naturalist and a devotee of the great out-of-doors. He was not a sociologist or economist and knew nothing about communism. The quotation which you have enclosed has nothing whatever to do with communism. He was an old man when he died in 1921.

Sincerely,

Ray Jerome Baker
